

Eirias Park (LL29 7SP)

This way to the sea/championship venue

Barn for evening entertainment. Contains indoor sports pitches. They can probably also provide footballs etc to entertain kids of all ages!

Camping area (now grass)

The park is within easy walking distance of the sailing area. Loads of good reviews of the park on Trip Advisor.

Also in the park:

Leisure centre including swimming pool and cafe

Model boating lake

Tennis centre

The park has lots of experience hosting different events including pop concerts, international rugby matches etc, so are used to feeding hungry sportspeople!

The barn for evening activities (they could partition of part of it for us)

Location guide to Colwyn Bay

Lots to do in the surrounding area for non-sailors or those extending their stay including:

Sandy beaches

Surf Snowdonia (the world's first inland surfing lagoon)

Zoos and Farm Parks (Colwyn Bay and Abergele)

Bronze age copper mine

Artificial ski slope (including toboggan run)

Castles

Zip world (for the adrenaline junkies)

Railways of different sizes and vintages, including a tramway and a cable car

The natural beauty of Snowdonia

Porth Eirias Watersports Centre, Colwyn Bay (LL29 8HH)

Modern facilities (completed 2013)

2 minutes (at most) off the A55 expressway with no awkward turns or narrow lanes for those towing boats

Free parking on the Promenade (although it may get busy later in the day in peak season)

Spacious changing area

Also has kayak, canoe, stand up paddleboard (SUP) and bike hire

Lockers available in the changing rooms (keys are on a waterproof watch strap, like they are in some swimming pools)

Big sandy beach to launch from

Childrens playground
